THE RESERVATION

F O R E W O R D

The Class of 1948, by using the theme "Home on the Reservation," have tried, to the best of their ability, to reproduce their school life on the pages of this QUILNA. We hope that as you turn these pages you will come to know this school life and cherish it as we do.

HOME OF THE SHAWNEES

ALMA MATER

Shawnee, my dear old Shawnee!
You are the school for me, forever,
Shawnee, my dear old Shawnee!
We will always stand by thee.
We will be faithful in deepest sorrow,
Even when others fail,
For we will always be loyal to you,
And we will dear old Shawnee hail!

BIG CHIEF

Mr. O. C. Knecht.

Dedication

Four years ago Mr. Knecht came to Shawnee High as our principal. Since then he has, through his toil, patience, and willingness to help, guided our schooling so that we may live a more useful and better life. Thus to show our gratitude to this fine person, we, the Class of '48, dedicate this QUILNA to our principal, Mr. O. C. Knecht.

GROWTH OF THE RESERVATION

Where the Shawnee Indian Tribe once built their campfires and Chief Quilna ruled his braves with an iron hand, Shawnee Centralized School now proudly stands with its doors open to those who wish to learn.

In 1926 the people of Shawnee Township dedicated this building, feeling that for years to come they had a school that would do credit to their community. Shawnee School started with a teaching force of 16 members and an enrollment of 393 pupils. Mr. Lappin was the first superintendent and still holds that position. Mrs. Waltz is the only teacher of the original staff who has been here the entire twenty-two years of the school's existence. Miss Mayer was also on the original staff, but she was away for three years finishing her college work.

By 1938 the enrollment had so increased that it was found necessary to build an addition. At last the community felt that the school would be large enough to accommodate the pupils for years to come. But just ten years later in 1947, it became necessary to build again, and now another addition is being planned.

The growth of Shawnee in these twenty-two years has been phenomenal. The teaching staff has increased in that time from 16 members to 36; the enrollment has increased from 393 pupils to 813. First one room was adequate for each grade; soon it was necessary to have two rooms for each grade; and this year it has taken three rooms to accommodate the first grade. The new rooms for the high school, which seemed more than was needed at the time of the first addition, have had to be divided, and now even with these divisions, class rooms are at a premium.

Shawnee is proud of its achievement in various fields. For nine straight years this school won the trophy at the County Eisteddfod. Besides this, several musical organizations and also individuals from the music department have won "Excellent" ratings in both district and state competition. We have four members of former agriculture classes who have been given the honor of being State Farmers, and one was chosen American Farmer. Our girls in Home Economics have brought home many ribbons for their displays at the State Fair at Columbus. Our athletes have brought honor to the school by winning the County Basketball Tournament four different times. No one who was here will soon forget how we won the tournament the first year the school was here. Mr. Lappin coached the team that won. This victory is so outstanding because it was so unexpected from such a new school. We have had some outstanding football and baseball teams and we must not forget to mention the very fine record of our track team last year. One of our former baseball players has been in the Big League for several years. Our scholars have won many honors in our county, and quite a few of them have ranked high in various subjects in both district and state. Yes, we are proud of Shawnee; her records are good.

With this year's graduating class Shawnee will have 1,004 alumni. You will find these men and women taking their places in all walks of life and for the most part, wherever they are, they are bringing credit to the school whose name we all love. We hope that Shawnee will always maintain her high standard of scholarship and sportsmanship so that in generations to come we may all look at her with pride and say, "That is our school."

May 19th marks the end of the trail for the fifty-eight seniors so far as their public education is concerned. For this class sponsoring this annual, the past twelve years have been spent in improving their growing minds and bodies. It is our hope and our belief that they have succeeded in preparing themselves for the duties and responsibilities of adult life. We will all be pulling for them to improve themselves by further education; to adjust themselves to the industrial and social ways of the world; to help meet the challenges of our highly charged civilization. No age ever carried greater responsibilities—nor has any age offered greater opportunities. Shawnee High School is with them one hundred per cent for their success as a class and as individuals. We hope they will be able to choose and work toward attaining the real values in living. The one who has made the most dollars is not always the one who has reached the highest degree of success. With the best regards, we salute this grand class with Addio! Au revoir! Auf wieder sehen! Adios! Farewell!

—C. G. Lappin.

The Class of '48 is soon to have a rendezvous with the future. We, who have helped prepare you for what is ahead, hope and pray that we have done our job well. You, the seniors, will bear witness by your performance as to how well we have succeeded.

The future belongs to those who prepare for it. That preparation never ceases. Every day, every hour, new opportunities will present themselves to you. If you miss the first, grab firmly the next to come your way. A wise football coach used to tell us, "The team that wins is the team that gets the most breaks and a good team makes its own breaks." So it is with you, my friends. If you would prosper, "make your own breaks," by constantly preparing yourselves for something better, serving with loyalty, living with wisdom and being grateful to God. Each of you has potential abilities that have not reached the surface. Find these hidden treasures, train them, develop them, nurture them to their highest degree. That, Class of '48, is our challenge to you and the future.

—O. C. Knecht.

Seniors

OFFICERS AND ADVISERS

Ted Verbryke, president; Ramon Marshall, vice president; Don Seiling, treasurer; Marilyn Kerr, secretary; Mr. Lusk, adviser; Mr. Hughes, adviser.

Ray, where is your excuse . . . Remember, seniors, you are supposed to be dignified . . . May I have a name card . . . Trying out for the play . . . How many tickets have you sold.

The day of graduation is not far off for the Class of '48. Though they have spent twelve years preparing for this day, the seniors look forward to it with a mingling of joy and tears. They are glad to graduate, yet they hate to leave Shawnee and all the ties that bind them to it.

The skillful leaders of this class for the past year have been Mr. Hughes and Mr. Lusk. Under their guidance, class officers were elected early in the year.

Members of this class could be found in almost all of the activities of the school—clubs, music and sports, and some of them have made enviable records in scholarship. Two of the outstanding activities sponsored by the seniors alone were the movie which they put on and the Senior Class Play.

"Tell Mr. Freeman I'm going to the music room . . . Where's your excuse? . . . I'll see you in home room . . . When are we going to have our skating party? . . . Who's on the prom committee? . . . Oh, was that chemistry test hard! . . . Mrs. Guyton's here . . . "Punkin, when are we going to have a class meeting?"

Staking out their claims in homerooms 1 and 4, the junior class proceeded to make plans for raising money to finance the prom.

The class energetically sold Christmas cards, collected tax stamps, had two skating parties, a class play, and had a check room at the basketball tournament, in hopes of providing more than hotdogs and potato chips for the prom.

Besides these many activities, members of the class were busily engaged in music, basketball, football, baseball, track, and many of the clubs.

This energetic class is to be seen participating in every activity, with special emphasis on the musical side.

Many of them take part in (notice those drummers!) band, orchestra, and glee club. They also lay claim to a great number on the Chief staff.

An able and willing class, the sophomores. They have sponsored a skating party and intend to do a lot for themselves and their school in the two years of high school left to them. So far they have been guided by Mr. Deckrosh and Mr. Younkman, and they hope to continue under this able leadership.

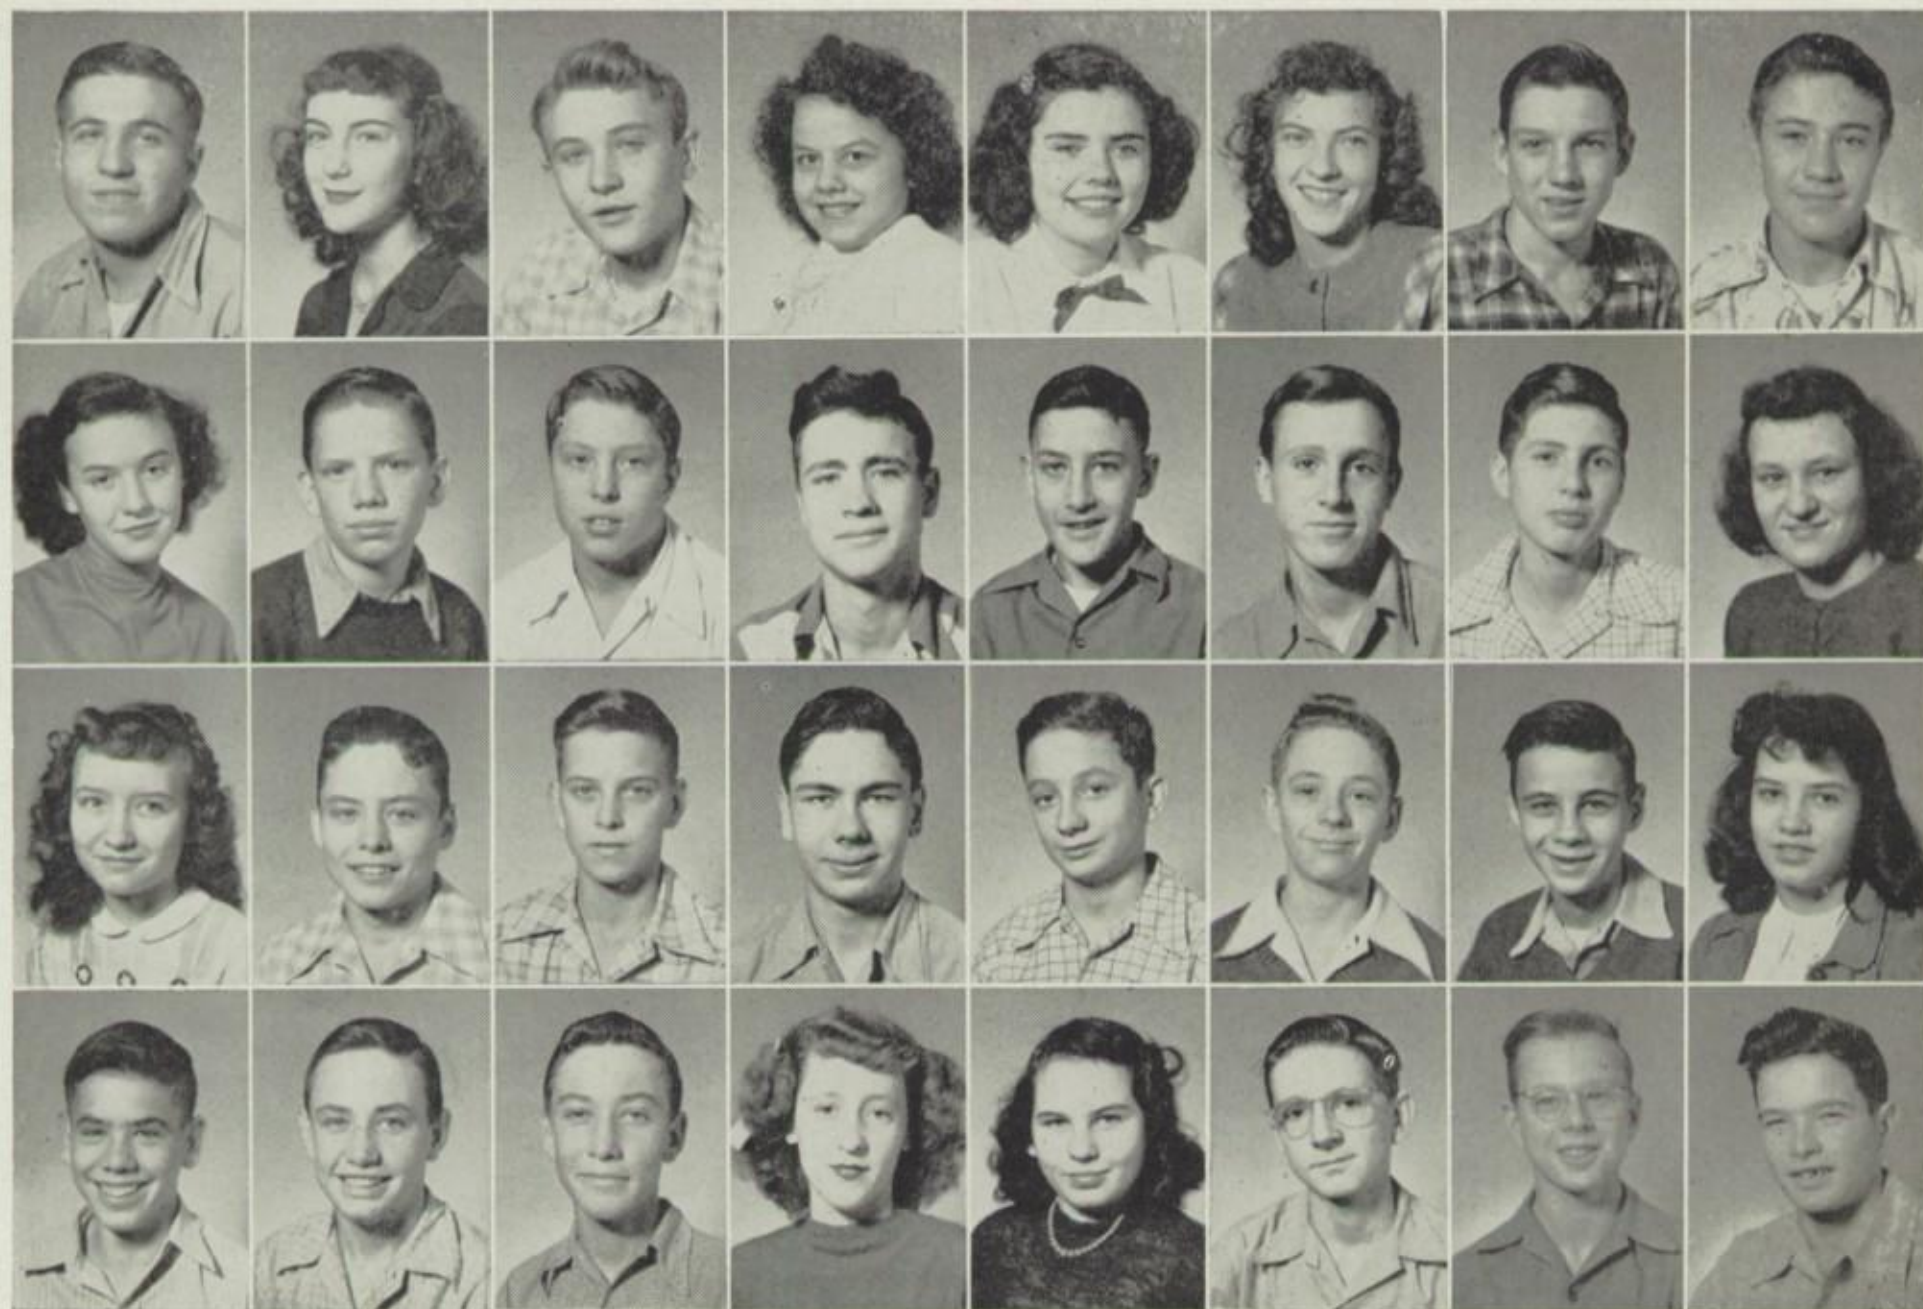

Row 1—Walthea Baber, Dale Barnes, Donna Barnes, Lydia Barnes, Dwight Boughan, Lois Bowers, Phyllis Bowersock, Marilyn Bowsher. Row 2—Ray Bowsher, James Bresler, Robert Buchanan, Richard Burtchin, Alice Campbell, Barbara Camper, Ronnie Carter, Jeanne Claar. One of the most progressive and up-and-coming classes in the school is the freshman class. This is shown by the fact that eighteen boys went out for football, two of which won letters. The junior high basketball team which won the county tournament was composed of members of this class. Receiving the trophy for being the county champions among junior high teams was one of the big moments of the "freshies." One member of this class won a letter in varsity basketball. Baseball and track also attracted many of them this year.

We must not suppose that members of this class excel only in sports. You will find them in glee club, mixed chorus, and the school clubs, playing an active part. Many of them proved on various occasions that they have the talent of future Bernhardt's and Valentinos. The way they have started indicates that the school is going to hear from this class.

Eighth Grade

"Just think, we're one more grade ahead . . . Peggy, behave . . . Who's got my book . . . Quiet, here comes Mitch . . . Got your Math."

»» ««

Although the eighth grade have enjoyed their second year of junior high school, they are eagerly looking forward to being in senior high in a year or so.

As far as activities go, the future looks bright for this class, for one will find many of them not only participating in band and orchestra but also composing many of the junior high athletic teams.

In music one won't have to look far to find some very promising singers and at least one fine pianist.

Three capable advisers—Miss Antonille, Mr. Mitchell, and Mr. Roeder have led this class through a busy year. Here's hoping they'll make the most of every minute of high school in the years that are to follow.

Seventh Grade

"Gee, I get so mixed up . . . Doesn't general science sound hard . . . What do we do the next period . . . Isn't the library nice . . . Sure seems strange to have more than one teacher . . . High school is fun!"

»» ««

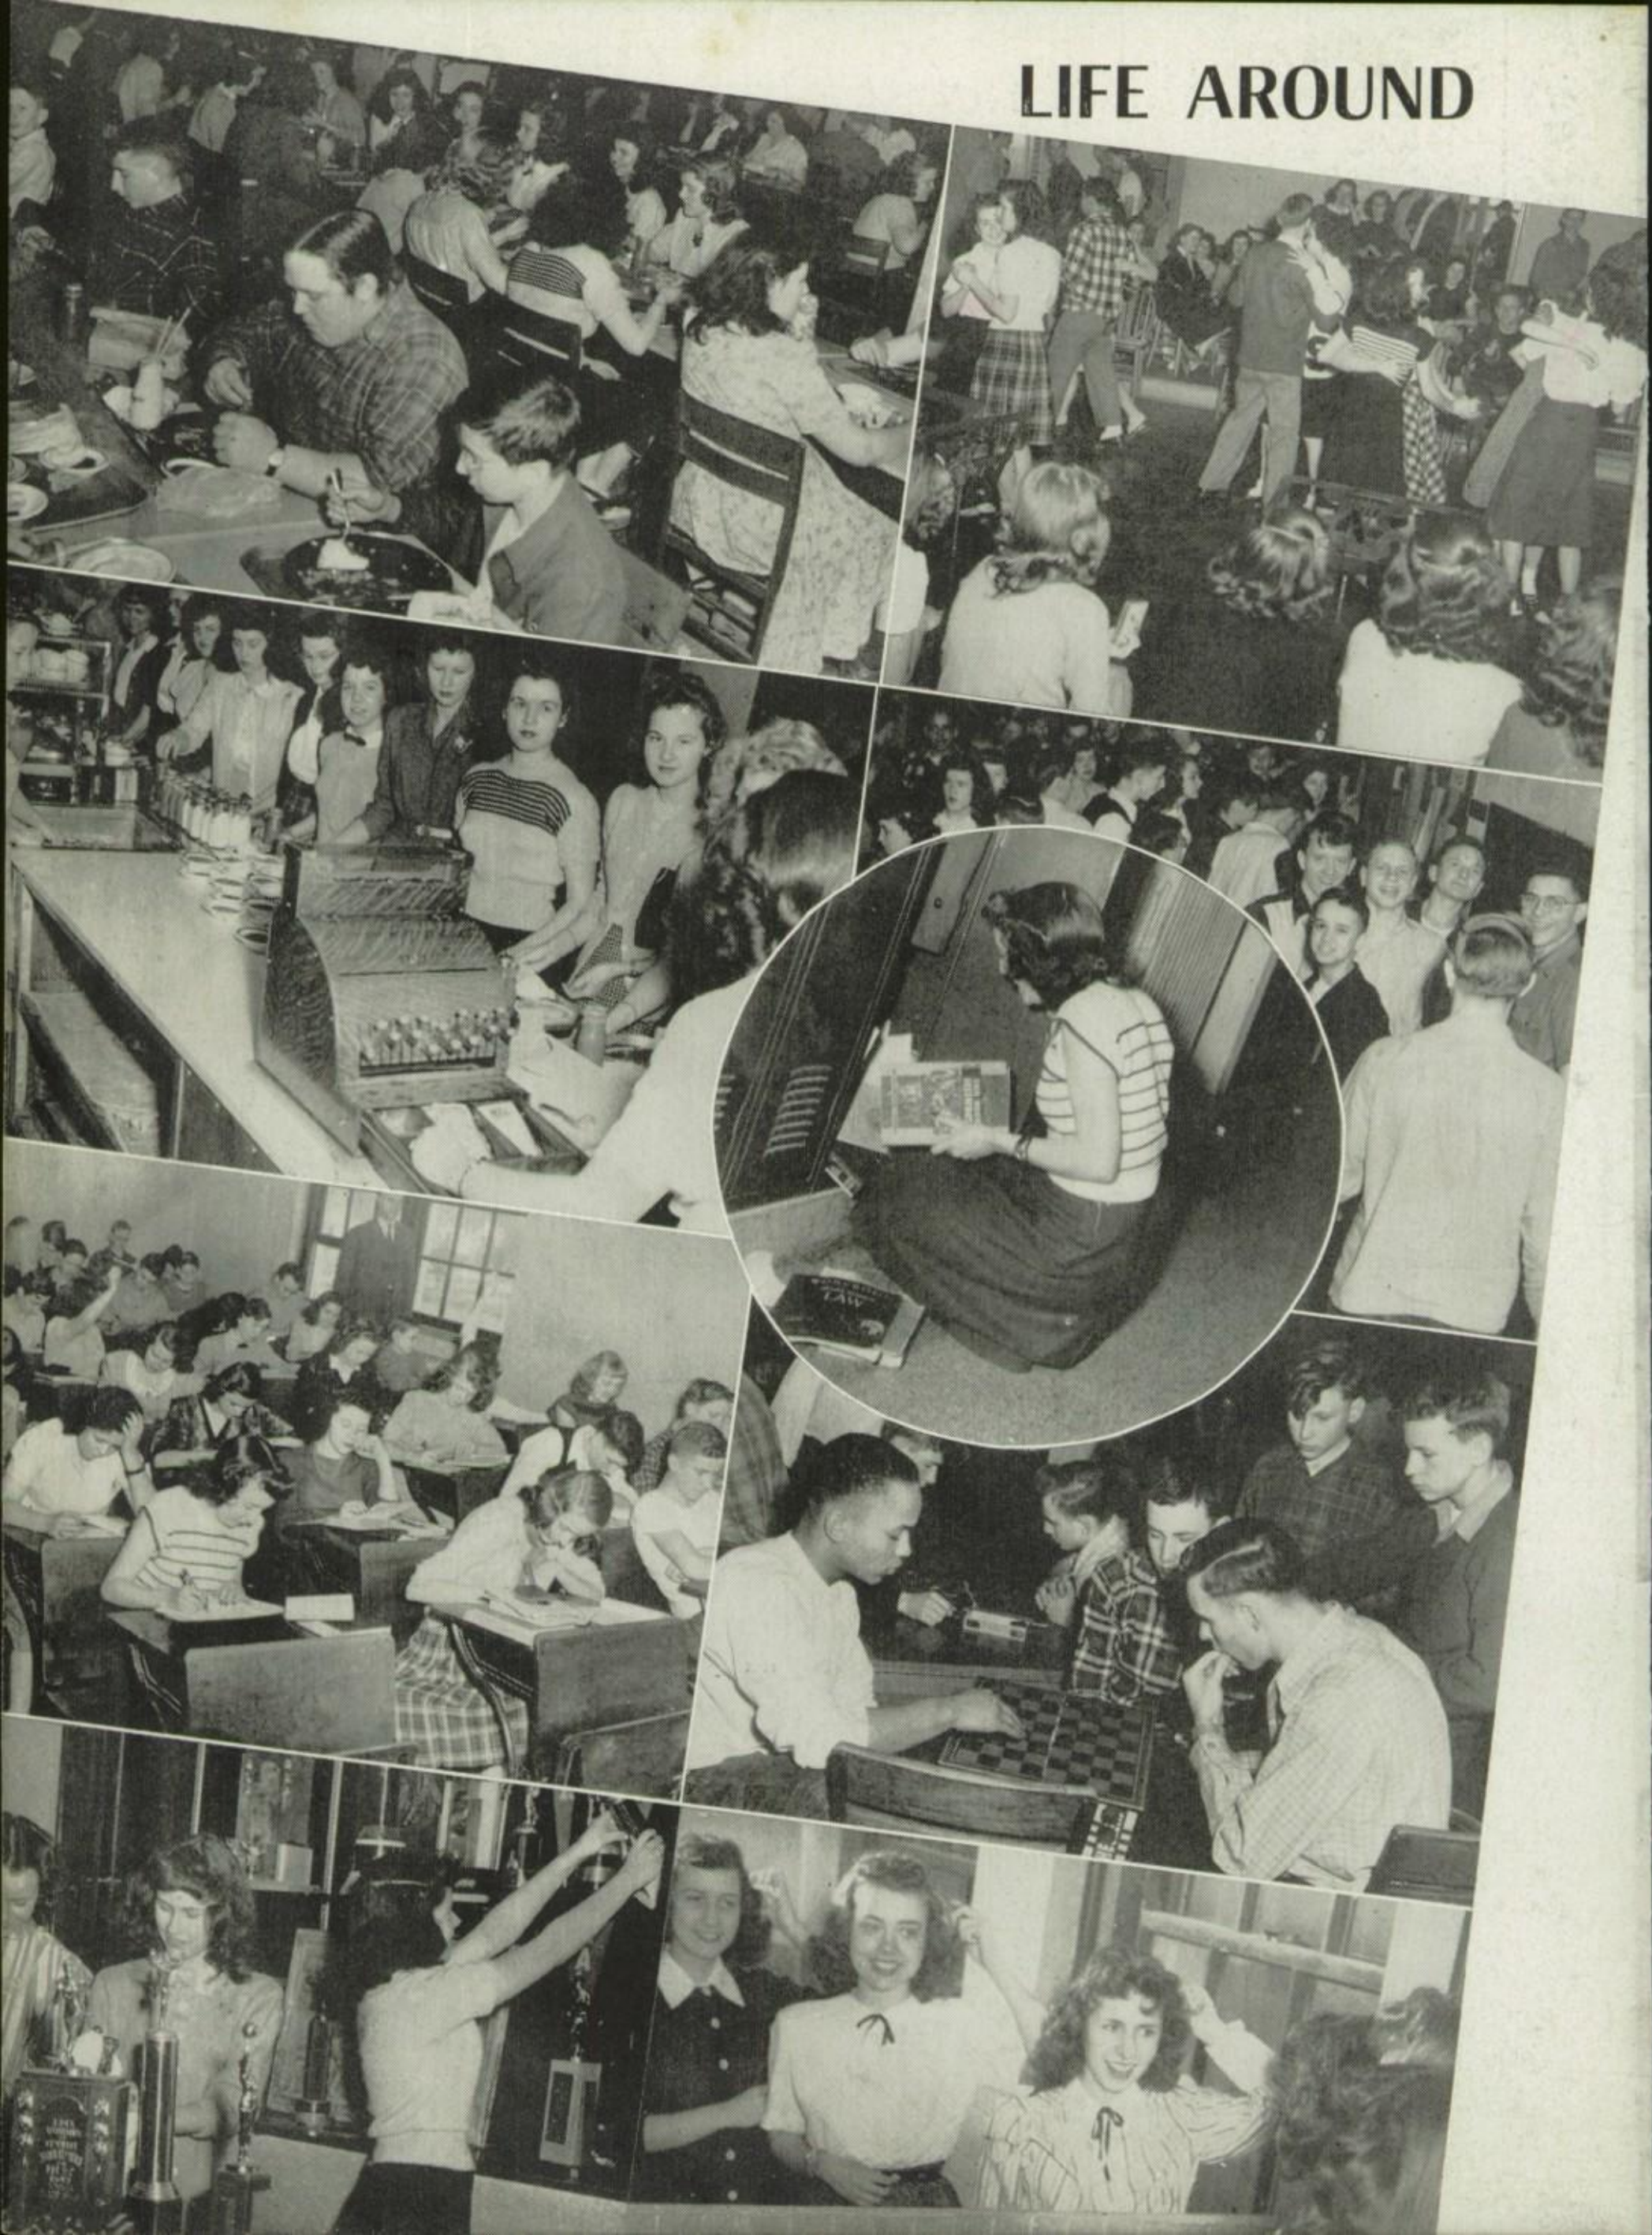

This year the seventh grade is under the leadership of Miss Mayer, Mrs. Hess and Mr. Cobb. We note the growth in the population of our reservation by the fact that not long ago Miss Mayer was the only needed advisor for this group.

This lively class responded delightedly to all the privileges of high school. They especially enjoyed being able to attend all the movies, pep sessions and assemblies.

As they have spent most of this year building a firm foundation for their future high school years, we believe that once they get started, they will really go places. We hope they will and wish them the best of everything on the way.

The highlight of this season's football was the game with Elida. In this game Shawnee's braves, the underdogs, attacked the Bulldogs. They were victorious and broke the Bulldogs' nineteen game winning streak by a score of 12 to 0.

A second highlight of the season was the homecoming game. Near the end of the third quarter the Indians were behind 13 to 0. In the remaining minutes they rallied and scored twice, tying the score at 13-13. The last touchdown came with forty seconds remaining to play.

The records of this year's team were not too good, but the players gained much in the way of experience and sportsmanship. This will be remembered long after the scores are forgotten.

With three lettermen, Riffle, E. Schlegel, and Williamson, as a nucleus of the team, Shawnee got off to a flashy start with four straight victories, under the coaching of Paul Hughes. Shawnee ended first round league play in first place but placed fourth all season.

Although entering the county tournament with hopes of emerging successful, we were not so fortunate and lost both games.

High scorers of the season were Ed. Schlegel, 245; John Schlegel, 113; Lewis and Long, 100 each; and Riffle, 99.

The basketball and football teams were honored in March by the Dad's Club who sponsored a Football-Basketball Banquet.

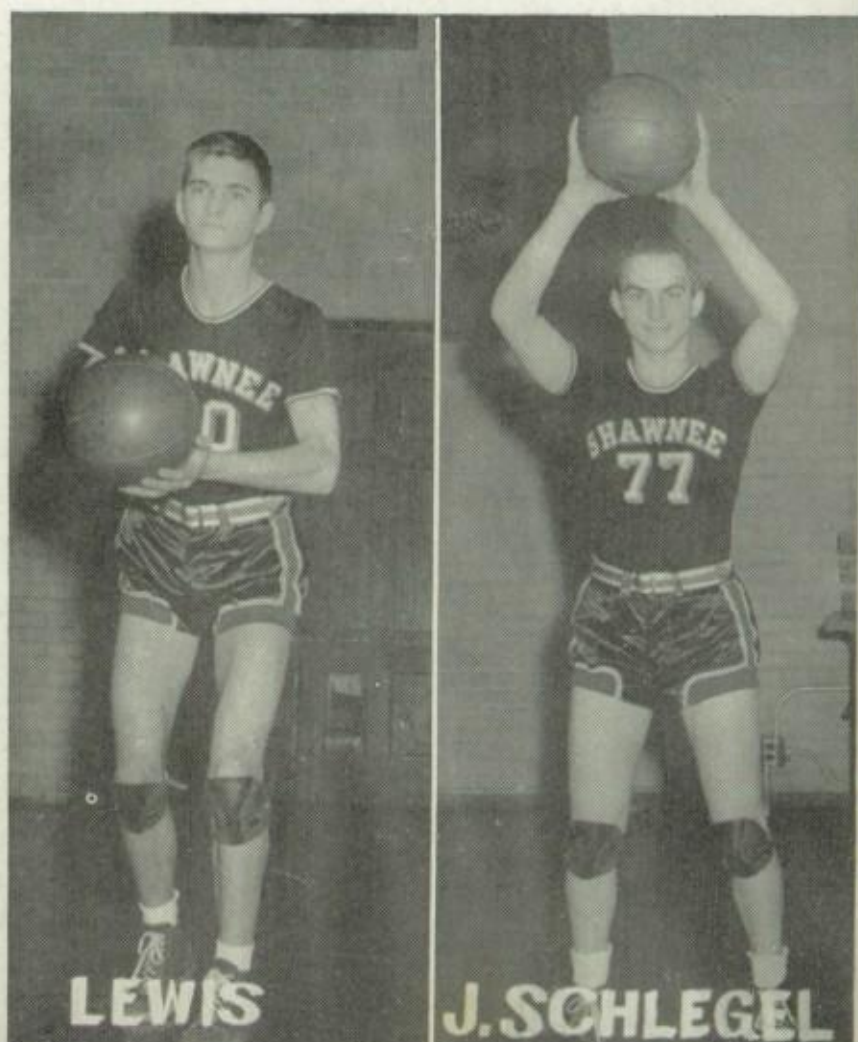

Next year's season looks bright with three lettermen back, good reserves, and a freshman club who won the Junior High Tournament this year.

The track team of 1947 was probably the best Shawnee has ever had. Coach Jim Vogelgesang led his boys to victory in all cases except one, Bellfontaine.

Besides winning their dual and triangular meets, Shawnee also won the North West Conference Meet at Pandora, and the Lima Olympic Relays. Three beautiful trophies were won at these meets. The members of the team won many individual medals and ribbons.

Jr. Trackmen Do Their Best

Bright spring day . . . excited youngsters running to and fro . . . the start of a race . . . Field event taking place . . . a shot heaved . . . distance measured . . . tallying of points . . . Shawnee takes the trophy home.

The young bucks of 1947 followed directly in the steps of the older braves. They showed up very well in all of their meets.

One big surprise came when the young bucks beat both South and Central in a triangular meet. They also won the junior high division of the Lima Olympic Relays. The competition in this class was very keen because most of the schools were class A.

They won a large trophy and many individual medals at this meet.

The 1947 baseball season was made short by continuous contrary weather. Coach Hughes built his team around returning veterans, Stewart, Trueblood, Sneary, Copus, Hadsell, Riffle, and Ed Schlegel. With few practice sessions outside because of the rain, the locals took action against Gomer on April 14. Backed by Ed Schlegel's fanning of 13 "Bobcats", The Indians stopped Gomer 6 to 0. In the next two contests, which marked the end of the short league play, the Shawnee sluggers were less fortunate, losing to Harrod, 2 to 1 and to Lafayette, 4 to 2. Playing in the annual county baseball tournament, the Indians lost to Elida by runs of 14 to 4.

These are typical questions of the industrious Quilna Staff. Throughout the year it has been the job of these people to take charge of the picture taking, choosing the theme, getting ads, and in short, preparing the Quilna so that everyone may enjoy it. Whenever they had a spare moment they could be found either in Mrs. Waltz's room or sitting quietly somewhere pondering over a write-up or cutting out pictures for the "dummy" copy of the Quilna. They have worked hard and industriously so that this may be one of the better Quilnas ever produced by Shawnee.

If one happens to be walking down the hall and hears some loud noises, he will probably find it is coming from the Chief room.

Besides being able to do the work required on one of the staffs, a person has had to be a doctor for the new mimeograph machine, as well as a good dodger of paper wads and air planes.

Even though the members of the Chief staff were sometimes noisy (ask anyone in study hall) and were excused from some classes, nevertheless, they have worked hard not only to bring the record of the news to the school, but also to get the news and the Chief out on time.

One of the busiest places in school is the library. The librarian, Mrs. Goldie Waltz, has her hands full with the twenty-seven girls who have signed up this year to "tend" the library and the three or four hundred other pupils who at one time or another come to the library to read and study.

The duties of the librarian assistants are to check books in and out, help students find material for their assignments, get their library lessons completed and keep a semblance of order in the library—Quiet Ronnie . . . Sh-hh over there . . . No whispering, Jinny . . . In other words "QUIET."

This club is composed of the first and second year Spanish students. Their purpose is to learn more about the language, customs and habits of the countries that speak Spanish. So that they may get the atmosphere of such countries, they speak nothing but Spanish at their meetings.

Well, Adios, senoras and señoritas, we wish you well in your travels, but don't forget to come back from your wanderings to the good old U. S. A.

»» ««

Cattle! Hogs! Farm machinery! Parliamentary Procedure! Just ask any boy in the F.F.A. about these things. He can explain any of them to you in full, because that is the work of these Future Farmers. The boys belonging to this group are all busily engaged in their farm projects and many fine healthy animals may be found on their farms. They can tell you what to plant, when to plant it and why. But that isn't all they learn in this organization. With their training in parliamentary procedure, they are expert at conducting a business meeting. To compete with other schools in both county and district meets they must know their parliamentary law.

Besides their other activities and in order to raise money for some of their work, these boys gave two skating parties.

The F.F.A. is excellent vocational training and the members are here to make the most of it.

"He's mine, I asked him first . . . No you didn't because I asked him way last week . . . You didn't . . . I did . . . Hey . . . Girl's what's going on . . . Why, haven't you heard, the Y-Teens is having a party."

At the first meeting of the year, Miss Gorman and Miss Antonille, were chosen by the members to be the club advisers.

The high lights of the year's program have been a Halloween Party in November, a pot-luck supper in December, a wonderful banquet in January by the Y. W. C. A., after which Professor Klassen, a Russian artist from Bluffton College, showed slides on his own carvings.

A March Leap Year party and an April dance will round out a year of fun for the 82 members of the Y-Teens.

RHYTHM OF THE REDMEN

Orchestra

MR. HAMER MITCHELL,
Director

Where's my music? . . . Aren't those after beats awful? . . . My string broke . . . Oh, that clarinet's flat . . . Who took my chair? . . . Let's start at the second measure . . . How's your "E" . . . Tune up before we start . . . Your rhythm's wrong, violins . . . Were the trombones supposed to play?

»» ««

"Busy as beavers" might well have been the motto of the orchestra this year. To get ready to play for the junior and senior plays and for the finis of the year at commencement took many fifth period rehearsals.

A county orchestra was also organized, in which many of the orchestra members participated, and played at the county music festival.

Although the year brought a lot of hard work, everyone is proud of our orchestra, and agrees that to Mr. Hamer Mitchell goes a bouquet for his patience and efforts.

Band

"Start five measures after C . . . 1, 2, 3, 4 . . . 1, 2, 3, 4 . . . Well, what you waitin' for—a telegram . . . You can't play that thing too loud. If you do, I'll tell you . . . Don, you try that run. It's too tough for me. . . . Drums—a little faster . . . Ritchie, quit messin' around . . . There's the bell . . . Hurry, we'll be late for 6th period . . . See you at the game tonight.

»» ««

It has been a year of a great many fine performances by the Shawnee band under the direction of Hamer Mitchell, Shawnee's master of musical art.

In the fall the band was led through many snappy parades at football games and in Lima by Janet Burget, drum major, and her capable assistant majorettes.

During the basketball season, the band was always to be seen at the home games, providing musical entertainment between the halves and quarters of the game, while the majorettes gave fascinating twirling demonstrations.

In the spring the band concentrated on classical music and went far in the district band contests.

Yes, it was a very busy year for the band and we're all proud of the grand job they've done and wish them the very best of luck in the years to come.

Girls' Glee

"Come to order now . . . All have music? . . . Sound your A . . . Pitches . . . Sopranos, seconds, altos . . . Ready . . . Sing . . ."

» » « «

One hundred pairs of eyes are all on our well trained director, Mrs. Winifred Jones, as we burst into song.

With the end of Mrs. Cohee's reign in our musical realm a new queen ascended, to carry us to still higher musical accomplishments.

On Thanksgiving, the Girls' Glee Club presented a concert, which consisted of Prayer of Consecration—Prothera; Jesus, Joy of Man Desiring—Bach; This is My Country—Jacobs; and at Christmas, they presented "Twas the Night Before Christmas."

With the Eisteddfod and State Contests not too far away, we are all working hard to come through with flying blue ribbon's.

The song ends, breaths are held, and the verdict is . . . right on pitch girls.

WATERS

Boys' Glee

"Do . . . ti . . . la . . . sol" Sing . . Let's have a quartette . . . Somebody's singing off key . . . Put those checkers away . . . More bass on "Dry Bones" . . . Who's singing solos in the Eisteddfod . . . What harmony!

The boys have produced good music this year, after being kept busy practicing by Mr. Mitchell. A side show at the carnival by the boys proved we had good soloists and a good boys' chorus. Their presentation of several inspiring selections, including "Dry Bones" by Fred Waring and "The Shadow March" was enjoyed by everyone.

A quartette and several soloists from the organization received superior rating at Bowling Green in the Northwestern District Contest. The boys will maintain the same high standard of musicianship at the County Eisteddfod and at Ada in the spring we feel sure. We hope that the club will continue to win honors both for themselves and for the school.

SONGS WITHIN

Mixed Chorus

"Strike middle C . . . Mary give me some gum . . . Let me have a copy . . . Hmmm, Neat sweater Jean has on . . . Quiet . . . Sound the chord . . . What!! . . . the bell already . . ."

»» ««

Fred Waring's arrangements started on top this year in mixed chorus. Under the skillful direction of Mr. Mitchell a group of voices presented "Grandmother's Thanksgiving" and "Song of Christmas."

A very fine musical rendition of several sacred songs was given in the Hume Church in February. The public was entertained in March with a traditional concert.

All eyes are on April which will bring the Eisteddfod and a victory. (We hope). With the music in our minds and a prayer in our hearts we will sing in this contest to round out a hearty year of musical renditions.

Row 1—Carrie Seay, Jean Schoonover, Oleta Sherer, Virginia Carter, Janet Bradford, Sarah Miller, Rose Faccenda, Beverly Bowersock, Helen Roof, Martha Myers, Mary McAdow, Delores Crow, Vera Kipker, Audrey Miller, Marilyn Riffle.
